EAN 6158
47

146839-1001

A. R. L.

Royal Academy of Music Library

Soft music
Miss Farren Song

Royal Academy of Music Library

SOFT MUSIC LET MY HUMBLE LAY,

Sung by Miſs Farren,

in the

New Comedy of False Colours,

Compoſed by

Mr. SUETT.

Price 1s

LONDON.

Printed & Sold by Preſton & Son, at their Wholesale Warehouses 97, Strand.

VOCE.

PIANO FORTE

Soft Mu - sic, let my hum - ble lay, Thy sweetest

ac - cents move, Soft Mu - sic, let my hum - ble lay, Thy

Royal Academy of Music Library

sweet - est Ac - cents move, While in de - lu - - sive Hope I stray To Ju - - lia and to Lo Ad libitum - - - - - ve. While in de - lu - sive

Hope I stray, To Ju - - lia and to Love, To Ju - lia and to Love, To Ju - lia and to Love.

2

That when to court the willing Strain
She tunes her graceful Art,
Each trembling Tone may breathe again
The Sigh that rends my Heart.

3

And should thy plaintive murmurs steal
A symphathetic Tear,
In fond emotion then reveal
Antonio sent thee here.

Royal Academy of Music Library

Guittar:

Soft Mu-sic, let my hum-ble lay, Thy sweetest Accents move,

Soft Mu-sic, let my humble lay, Thy sweetest Accents move:

While in de-lu-sive Hope I stray, To Ju-lia, and to Lo - - - - ve:

Ad libitum

While in de-lusive Hope I stray, To Ju-lia and to Love, To Julia and to Love, To Julia and to Love.

Flute.

Ad lib: